Terms and Conditions – Connection with Community Online Art Competition 2017

Competition:

1. This competition is promoted by Palliative Care Australia Incorporated (ABN: 85 363 187 904). Office: 113 Canberra Avenue, Griffith ACT 2603. Postal Address: PO Box 124, Fyshwick. Phone: 02 6232 0700. Email: pcainc@palliativecare.org.au.
2. The theme of the art competition is 'Connection with Community'.
3. The competition will open at 10:00am AEST on Friday, 26 May 2017. The competition will close at 10am AEST on Monday, 31 July 2017. Entries received outside of this time will not be considered.
4. Entrants must agree with the Terms and Conditions at the time of entry.
5. Entry is open to all Australian residents. Entrants aged under 18 years must seek parental/carer permission before submitting their entry. By entering, Palliative Care Australia assumes parental/carer permission has been sought and the parent/carer agrees with the Terms and Conditions set forth in this document.
6. The entrant warrants that the submission (and any part thereof) is their own work.
7. There are three prizes on offer:
 - a. Overall winner – $1,000.00 AUD prize money as voted by Palliative Care Australia's judging panel.
 - b. People's Choice – $1,000.00 AUD prize money as voted by the public via www.dyingtotalk.org.au.
 - c. Palliative Care Australia prize – non-monetary prize as voted by Palliative Care Australia staff. The winner of this prize will feature on marketing and promotional materials.
8. Palliative Care Australia will accept the following mediums:
 - a. Painting
 - b. Drawing
 - c. Object
9. Entrants must provide the following with their entry:
 - a. Their full name
 - b. Email address
 - c. State of residence and postcode
 - d. Medium
 - e. Description (max 100 words stating how the artwork relates to the theme)
 - f. A high resolution image of the artwork (the artwork will be judged on this photo)
10. After the competition period, PCA will elect a panel of external judges who will judge all competition entries. Entries will be judged on the photo of the artwork and the maximum 100 word description of how the artwork relates to the theme.
11. The panel of judges will determine the overall winner. PCA staff will determine the PCA prize. The judges' decision is final. The Australian public will vote for People's Choice award. The artwork with the highest number of valid votes will be deemed the winner.

12. In the event of a tie between two artworks, prize money will be split evenly between the entrants (i.e. entrants will receive $500 each). In the event of a tie between three or more artworks, the panel of judges will determine the winner/s.
13. Palliative Care Australia reserves the right to remove any entry that does not comply with the Terms and Conditions in any way, or any entry that is deemed offensive, derogatory or racist. As the competition is open to people of all ages, the competition website will include a nudity filter. Any artworks featuring nudity will not be accepted.
14. There will be no physical exhibition component for this year's competition.
15. The winner/s will be announced in the week beginning Monday, 28 August 2017.

People's Choice:

1. All entries will be eligible for People's Choice, as voted by the public via www.dyingtotalk.org.au.
