

Terms and Conditions – Online Art Competition 2018

Competition:

1. This competition is promoted by Palliative Care Australia Incorporated (ABN: 85 363 187 904). Office: 113 Canberra Avenue, Griffith ACT 2603. Postal Address: PO Box 124, Fyshwick. Phone: 02 6232 0700. Email: pca@palliativecare.org.au.
2. The theme of the art competition is 'What Matters Most During the Holiday Season'.
3. The competition will open at 10:00am AEST on Monday, October 1, 2018. The competition will close at 10:00am AEST on Thursday, 15 November 2018. Entries received outside of this time will not be considered.
4. Entrants must agree with the Terms and Conditions at the time of entry.
5. Entry is open to all Australian residents. Entrants aged under 18 years must seek parental/carer permission before submitting their entry. By entering, Palliative Care Australia assumes parental/carer permission has been sought and the parent/carer agrees with the Terms and Conditions set forth in this document.
6. The entrant warrants that the submission (and any part thereof) is their own work and they own the copyright to their artwork.
7. There are three prizes for the competition:
 - a. Overall winner – $1,500.00 AUD prize money as voted by Palliative Care Australia's judging panel.
 - b. People's Choice – $1,000.00 AUD prize money as voted by the public via www.dyingtotalk.org.au.
 - c. PCA Award – non-monetary prize. The winner of this prize will feature on marketing and promotional materials.
8. Palliative Care Australia will accept the following mediums:
 - a. Painting
 - b. Drawing
 - c. Photograph
 - d. Object
9. Entrants must provide the following with their entry:
 - a. Their full name
 - b. Email address
 - c. State of residence and postcode
 - d. Medium
 - e. Description (max 100 words stating how the artwork relates to the theme)
 - f. A high resolution image of the artwork (the artwork will be judged on this photo)
10. After the competition period, PCA will elect a panel of external judges who will judge all competition entries. Entries will be judged on the photo of the artwork and the maximum 100 word description of how the artwork relates to the theme.

11. The panel of judges will determine the overall winner. The judges' decision is final. The Australian public will vote for People's Choice award. The artwork with the highest number of valid votes will be deemed the winner. PCA staff will determine the PCA award winner.
12. In the event of a tie between two artworks in the People's Choice award, prize money will be split evenly between the entrants (i.e. entrants will receive $500 each). In the event of a tie between three or more artworks, the panel of judges will determine the winner/s.
13. Palliative Care Australia reserves the right to remove any entry that does not comply with the Terms and Conditions in any way, or any entry that is deemed offensive, derogatory or racist. As the competition is open to people of all ages and hosted online, the competition website will include a nudity filter. Any artworks featuring full-frontal nudity will not be accepted.
14. There will be no physical exhibition component for this year's competition.
15. The winner/s will be publicly announced in the week beginning Monday, 3 December 2018.

People's Choice:

16. All entries will be eligible for People's Choice, as voted by the public via www.dyingtotalk.org.au.
17. Voting opens at 10:00am AEST on Tuesday, 20 November 2018. Voting will close at 10:00am on Friday, 30 November 2018. Votes received outside this time will not be accepted.
18. Voters must provide their name and a valid email address.
19. Only one vote per email address and per IP address will be counted.
20. The winner/s will be announced in the week beginning Monday, 3 December 2018.

Privacy and publicity:

21. Palliative Care Australia will collect, manage, use and disclose personal information in accordance with all relevant legislation and standards as per the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). Palliative Care Australia will not sell any part of information collected or posted as part of the art competition and exhibition, nor will we disclose it to any outside organisation unless approved by you or as authorised under law. Palliative Care Australia will take reasonable steps to securely store your information from loss, misuse and unauthorised access.
22. Entries may be promoted by Palliative Care Australia on their website and social media platforms, and in their weekly newsletter. By entering, entrants give permission for Palliative Care Australia to promote their entry and name on the www.palliativecare.org.au and www.dyingtotalk.org.au websites, social media and other platforms at the discretion of Palliative Care Australia.
23. Palliative Care Australia may ask the winners of the competition to participate in media interviews and promotion of the award.
24. This competition is no way associated with, sponsored, endorsed or administered by Facebook, Twitter, Instagram or any other social media platform where promotional material may be shared.
25. Please contact Palliative Care Australia on 02 6232 0700 or email pca@palliativecare.org.au for further information.